

NEW YORK TIMES
26 SEP 1969

P-Svetlana, Soellane
Soc. 4.01.2 Only One
Year

SVETLANA
ALLILUYEVA

ONLY ONE YEAR

Harper & Row
1817

"Here is a unique book.

There is really nothing like it in existence....It is not merely a tale of travel and escape to a new home. It is an account of a conversion."

- GILBERT HIGHET,
Book-of-the-Month Club News

"Now Svetlana Alliluyeva emerges in her own right as a powerful, poignant and persuasive personality, a writer of genuine gifts...a woman who knows the agony of life and who is capable of making us see and feel the depth and breadth of the Soviet experience...the whole Soviet process which began with Lenin and continues to this day....Her analysis is as devastating an indictment as has been penned in this decade against the failure of the Soviet dream."

- HARRISON E. SALISBURY,

Translated by Paul Chavchavadze

AT ALL BOOKSTORES, $7.95